List the responsibilities/roles of each team member

TM1: Primary Coder & MPLAB Lead: Chloe took the lead in writing and debugging the embedded C code using MPLAB X IDE. Her laptop served as the main development hub, where code was compiled, tested, and uploaded to the microcontroller. A key part of the group workflow effort as working on one computer is more efficient.	TM2: Coordinator & Video Presenter: Devon organized the workflow and coordinated the group tasks to ensure deadlines were met. He also prepared and filmed the project demo video, providing a walkthrough of the assignment deliverables and explaining its functionality.
TM3: Report Writer: Ethan focused on documentation, transforming the group's technical work into a clear and professional report. He made sure that the hardware setup, code logic, and design choices were explained in an accessible way.	TM4:
